6 With five new patterns and a refreshed color palette, the new outdoor textiles from Serena Dugan introduce a high-performance fabric integrated with stain and UV resistance for added protection against the environment. SERENADUGAN.COM

7 Dea's shades are handcrafted in Laguna Beach, California by ceramic artists Scott and Naomi Schoenherr for Cerno. The unglazed terracotta accentuates the clay's natural red-earth coloring, while the modern form works well in minimalist environments. CERNOGROUP.COM

8 The Northstar Mast uses Tuuci's patent-pending channel and ridge marine architecture. Enhancing the company's Ocean Master Max styles with polished ridges positioned between arched channels, it includes wood tones or neutral powdercoat hues for finishes. TUUCI.COM

9 The Rambler 60 is the mid-sized entry to Shift's all-aluminum Rambler series of picnic tables. It comes in three distinct sizes and can be made accessible for people with disabilities. SHIFTMAKES.COM

10 Handcrafted by John Randall from his Brooklyn, New York-based studio Bien Hecho, the Butternut credenza is made of Baltic birch and ipé wood with a butternut veneer and solid rosewood accents. BIENHECHOBKLYN.COM
