

home

Serene Spaces

Design the ultimate “time-out” living room with neutral tones and hints of world travels

By Jennie Nunn

ORGANIC STYLE Handcrafted from teak and recycled glass, this blown glass vase with teak base adds a modern, yet rustic touch to the media console or coffee table; vivaterra.com

NATURAL BEAUTY Add a pop of color to Heath Ceramics' multi-stem vase in sea and sand, with flowers or branches. The company, founded in 1947, uses low-fire stoneware, has a greywater system that recycles water for factory production, and recycles scrap, unfired clay; heathceramics.com

DREAM WEAVER Made by Maasai women in Tanzania and inspired by traditional ceremonial jewelry, Sidai Designs' small double multi V wall-hanging consists of a glass bead panel woven with recycled grain sacks onto a wooden dowel; shop-sidaidesigns.com

PRIORITY SEATING The clean-lined Ophelia armchair is made of crème-hued eco leather and a brass-finished metal frame; jaysonhome.com

STORAGE OPTIONS Neatly conceal throws or magazines in these chic, hand-stitched leather bins made from durable Paraguayan leather; jaysonhome.com

SOFA CITY VivaTerra's Madrid sofa in farrow metal is constructed of 80 percent regenerated fiber-fill made from renewable, soy-based BiOH polyol core; vivaterra.com

LIGHT SHOW Southern California lighting company Cerno's sleek Nauta floor lamp is designed and made in California and features a burlap shade, aluminum fixtures, a whitewashed oak base and a dimmable LED bulb. Optional shelf available as well as finishes, shades and stains; cernogroup.com

TOUCH OF TRIBAL The black-and-white Kuran rug is handwoven in Kutch, Gujarat, India with 100-percent undyed wool; shopsundaymonday.com