

The Architect's Newspaper

GET OUTTA THE DARK

Illuminate the darkest outdoor areas with these up-down lights

By GABRIELLE GOLEND A • October 28, 2019

Artemide's Antarktikós fixture shines light in 360 degrees from a single LED bulb. (Courtesy Artemide)

Notable for their ability to cast light both up and down, these bold outdoor fixtures provide uncompromising illumination.

(Courtesy Cerno)

Acuo Outdoor

Nick Sheridan for Cerno

This asymmetric sconce features a jagged composition that emits light like a setpiece from a German Expressionist film. The dimmable integrated LED fixture is offered in various light colors ranging from 2700K to 4000K.

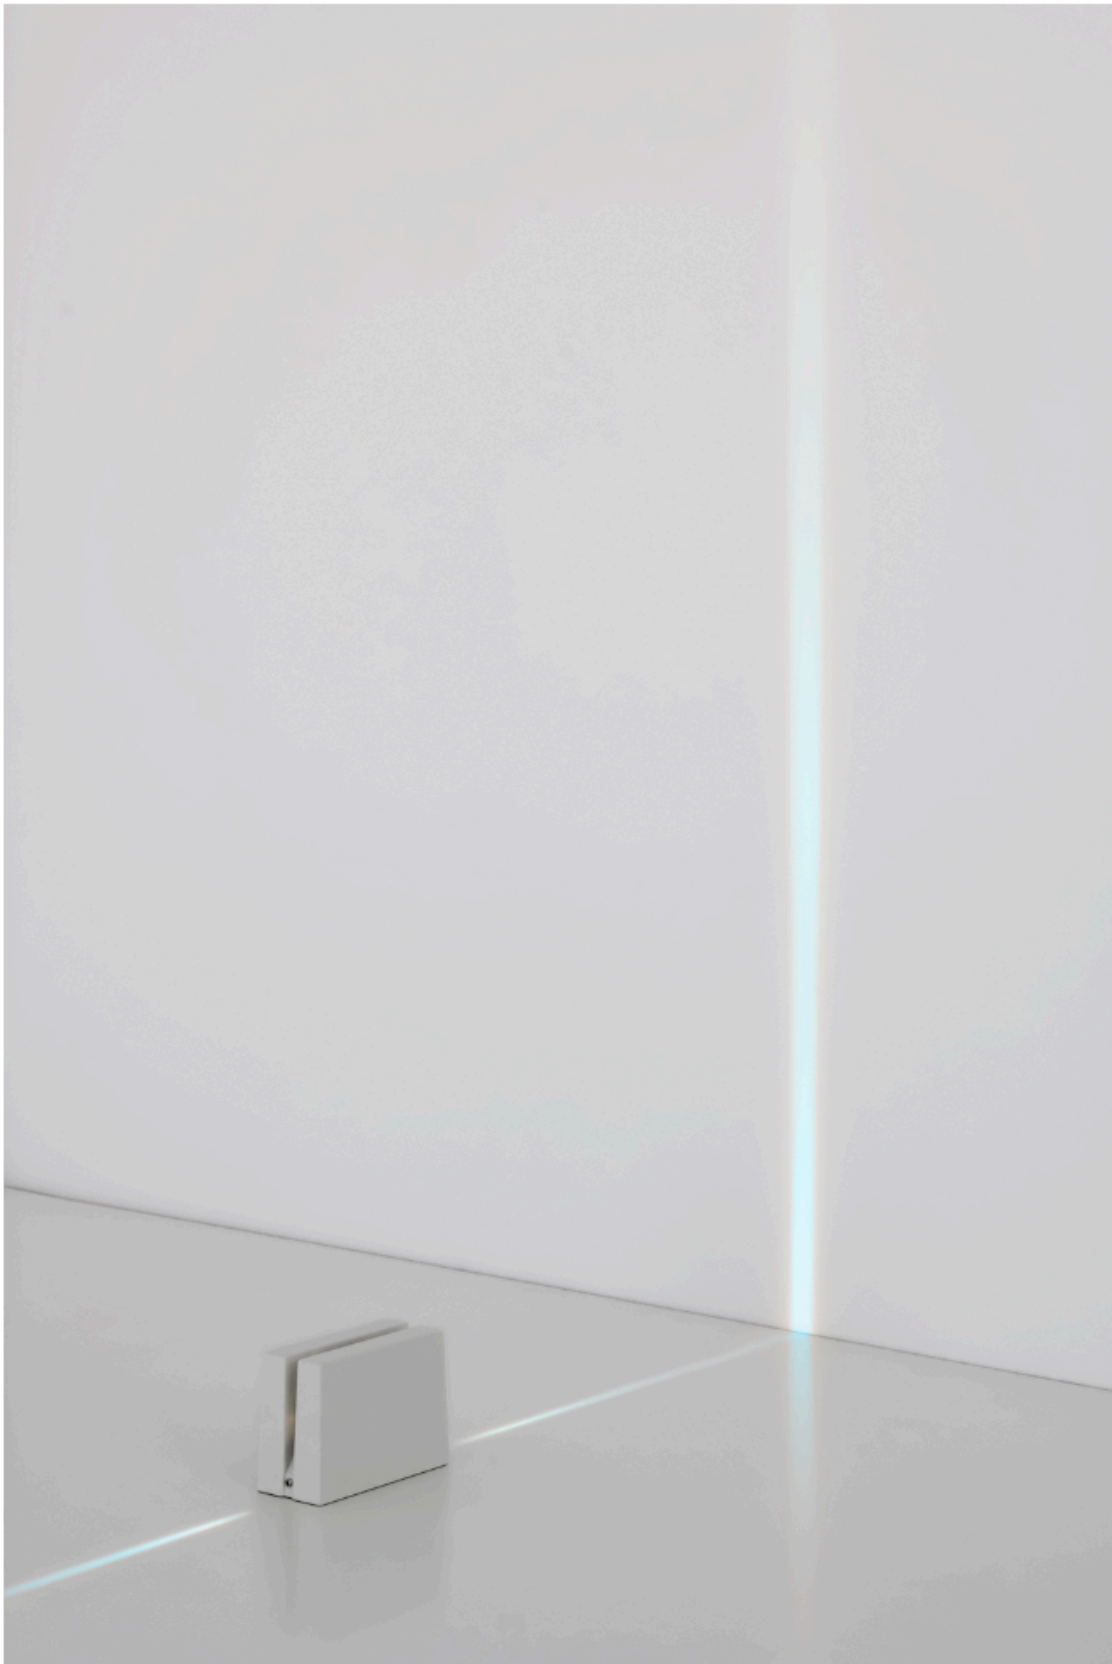

(Courtesy FLOS)

Generation 50 Bench

FLOS

Taking the form of an hourglass, this wall sconce emits a diffuse, indirect light from both ends. It is offered in gray and brown and in two beam lengths.

(Courtesy Artemide)

Antarktikós

Carlotta de Bevilacqua for Artemide

This luminaire shines light in 360 degrees from a single LED bulb. The patented piece is available with a white or RGB light.